

Day One
Wednesday, February 10

8:15 – 9 am Registration & Breakfast

9 – 9:20 am Introductory Remarks:
Building a Local Clean Energy Movement
Dave Room, Local Clean Energy Alliance

9:20 – 9:50 Keynote Address:
Clean Power as a Pathway to Healthy, Vibrant Communities, Bill Gallegos, Communities for a Better Environment

10 – 10:50 Plenary Session I:
Bay Area Energy Projects and Programs

- Effective Climate Action Plans
Renata Brillinger, Sonoma Climate Protection Campaign
- Does the Bay Need More Power Plants?
Rory Cox, Pacific Environment
- Community Power Purchasing
Charles McGlashan, Marin County

11 – 12:15 pm Breakout Sessions I:

A. The Potential of Climate Action Plans
(Laurel Room)

- Timothy Burroughs, City of Berkeley
- Emily Kirsch, Ella Baker Center
- Calla Ostrander, City of San Francisco

B. Community Choice Energy
(Uptown Room)

- Renata Brillinger, Sonoma Climate Protection Campaign
- Paul Fenn, Local Power
- Andy Katz, East Bay Municipal Utility District (EBMUD)

C. Stopping Dirty Energy
(Lake Merritt Room)

- Bradley Angel, Greenaction
- Shana Lazerow, Communities for a Better Environment
- Torm Nompraseurt, Asia Pacific Environmental Network
- Rob Simpson, Citizens Against Pollution

12:30 – 1:15 pm Lunchtime Keynote:
Mark Jacobson, Stanford University

Clean Power, Healthy Communities

CONFERENCE

AGENDA

1:15 – 2:05 pm Plenary Session II:
Opportunities and Threats to the Bay Area's Clean Energy Future

- Feed-in Tariffs for Renewable Power
Randy Hayes, World Future Council
- Climate Bay Area
Bruce Riordan, Climate Bay Area
- Public Power and Community Choice Energy Under Fire
Mark Toney, The Utility Reform Network

2:10 – 3:25 pm Breakout Sessions II:

A. Comparing and Contrasting Feed-in Tariffs and Net Metering (Laurel Room)

- Adam Browning, Vote Solar
- Paul Gipe, Wind Works
- Randy Hayes, World Future Council

B. Clean Energy Financing
(Lake Merritt Room)

- Damien Gossett, Alameda County
- Tom Kelly, Kyoto USA
- Ezra Rapport, Association of Bay Area Governments (ABAG)
- Laura Spanjian, San Francisco Public Utilities Commission (SFPUC)
- Simón Bryce, Renewable Funding

C. Energy Efficiency and Community Participation (Uptown Room)

- Tara Marchant, Greenlining Institute
- Jodi Pincus, Rising Sun Energy Center
- Mark Toney, The Utility Reform Network

3:30 – 4:30 Interactive Plenary:
Stopping the PG&E Power Grab
Facilitated by Rosa Gonzalez

4:30 – 6 pm Happy Hour
Open Networking

Day Two
Thursday, February 11

8:15 – 9 am Registration & Breakfast

9:00 – 9:15 Introduction to Agenda
Dave Room, Local Clean Energy Alliance

9:15 – 9:50 Keynote Presentation
David Campos, SF Board of Supervisors

10 – 10:50 Plenary Session III:
Building an Inclusive Green Economy

- The Industry Perspective
John O'Conner, Sun Light & Power
- From Fossil to Green Power in SF
Joshua Arce, Brightline Defense
- Creating Green Pathways Out of Poverty
Ian Kim, Ella Baker Center

11 – 12:30 Breakout Sessions III:

A. Creating Green Jobs for All (Laurel Rm)

- Debra Chaplan, California State Building & Construction Trades Council
- Art Shanks, Cypress Mandela Training Center / Oakland Green Jobs Corps
- Michelle McGeoy, Solar Richmond
- Colin Miller, Greenlining Institute

B. Locally Resilient Communities
(Lake Merritt Room)

- Kirsten Schwind, Bay Localize
- Kristin Miller, Ecocity Builders
- Carla Pérez, Movement Generation

C. The PG&E Power Grab (Uptown Room)

- Dave Room, Local Clean Energy Alliance
- Larry Chang, SightWorks Architecture
- Megan Matson, Mainstreet Moms
- John Roukema, Silicon Valley Power

12:30 – 1:15 Lunch

1:15 – 2 pm Keynote Presentation:
Powering Our Region on Local Clean Energy
Bill Powers, Powers Engineering

2 – 4 pm Organizing Session:
Building the Movement for Clean Energy in the Bay Area, facilitated by Sujin Lee

Bay
Localize

Cosponsoring Organizations: